TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world."

This line, the

ST. LOUIS & SOUTHEASTERN RAILWAY,

has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air brake.

It is positively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time or quality. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that

The "St. Louis & Southeastern" is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to C. B. BARKER, Southern Passenger Agent, Postoffice Box 243, Chattanooga, Tenn., or to the undersigned.

Nilsson refuses to convert her notes into cash at a less rate of exchange than one thousand dollars a night.

A late dispatch from Madrid states that Castellar has made a demand upon our government for the surrender to Spain of the Virginians and her crew.

Governor Newton Booth has been elected by the Legislature of California as the successor of Senator Casserly, for the long term commencing March 4th, 1875. Mr. Casserly's recent resignation leaves a vacancy, which perhaps Gov. Booth may yet be elected to fill.

Another of the Tammany Ring has come to grief. Henry W. Genet, a Democratic member of the New York Legislature, has been convicted by a jury of using false and fraudulent means to obtain the signature of the Mayor to a warrant for $4,302 for iron work for the Harlem Court House.

Hon. J. L. Pennington, formerly of North Carolina, has been nominated by the President as Territorial Governor of Dacotha. This gives an opportunity to some of the editors of "the party of wealth, refinement and intelligence," to say their worst of Gov. Pennington, and that is that he once sold lemonade at five cents a glass.

The new Court House of Culpepper county, Virginia, was the scene of a singular occurrence last Monday. It was the time for holding the regular monthly court, when the Judge was asked by an old colored man for permission to offer a prayer, as a sort of dedication of the new building. The Judge consented, and the court and lawyers went down upon their knees while the old man prayed.

The champion office holder of the United States lives in Florida. The Honorable L. G. Dennis holds the office of Senator, County Commissioner, Deputy Marshal, Deputy Sheriff, Deputy County Clerk, Treasurer of School Funds, Custodian of County Treasurer's Books, Senior Councilman, Acting Mayor, and is the whole Board of Instruction himself. During the absence of the Honorable L. G. Dennis from the town of Gainesville, all public business is suspended.

The delivery of the Virginians has been peacefully accomplished, and the country may congratulate itself that we have been able to carry out our demands without a resort to war. There is, we believe, but one newspaper in the United States which is unwilling to accord to the Administration the credit of having duly supported the honor of the flag in this affair. Although that paper may grumble, few heed what it may say, for its political utterances are generally considered about as valuable as was the Buchu advertisement for which it got no pay.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

(Condensed from the Raleigh News.)

FRIDAY, Dec. 19.

Senate met at 11 o'clock. Lieutenant Governor Brogden in the chair.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

Special Order.

A substitute for the resolution instructing and authorizing the Governor and Public Treasurer in regard to certain matters pertaining to the Western North Carolina Railroad, was offered by Mr. Fleming and adopted. The substitute authorizes the Governor to withdraw the suit now pending before the United States Supreme Court, of which the Western North Carolina Railroad is defendant, and also to indemnify the sureties on the appeal bond.

Rules Suspended.

Mr. Powell called up the bill to amend chapter 189, laws of 1871-72. Passed its second reading and was recommitted to the committee.

The bill of Mr. Gidger, to extend the time of taking out land grants one year, taken up and passed its readings, engrossed and sent to the House.

Mr. Worth called up the bill for the adjustment of the State debt for the purpose of making several amendments and otherwise perfect the bill—that it may be printed for the use of members to take home and consider during recess.

Messrs. Troy and Norwood withdrew the amendments previously offered by them.

Messrs. Worth, Barnhardt, Norwood and Waring offered amendments.

On motion of Mr. Morehead, of Guilford, the further consideration of the bill was postponed till the 16th of January, and made the special order for that day, and two hundred and fifty copies ordered to be printed for the use of the Senate.

The bill to provide for the sale of Battle's Revisal, fixing the price of the same at $6, and allowing ten per cent. discount to booksellers for selling, passed its readings.

Mr. Dunham's bill to incorporate the Raleigh and Seaboard Railroad, was taken up under a suspension of the rules. The amendments proposed by the Committee on Internal Improvements were adopted, and the bill passed its several readings.

The bill to add additional sections to Battle's Revisal was taken up and passed its several readings.

Adjourned.

HOUSE REPRESENTATIVES.

At 10½ a. m., Mr. Speaker Robinson called the House to order.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

By Mr. Maxwell, a bill to prohibit the sale of liquor in certain localities in Sampson county. Referred.

By Mr. Richardson, a bill to re-enact chapter 76, laws of 1870-71. Calendar.

By Mr. Richardson, a bill to declare in force all acts of the General Assembly from Nov. 17th, 1873, to December 22d, 1873, chapter 74, laws of 1873, to the contrary notwithstanding. Calendar.

Unfinished Business.

The motion to lay on the table the motion to reconsider the vote by which the bill in relation to the 4th Judicial District passed its second reading came up as the unfinished business. The motion to table was put to a vote, and prevailed.

The resolution asking our Representatives in Congress to use their influence against an increased tax on tobacco, was taken up and adopted.

Mr. Johnston, of Buncombe, moved to recede from an amendment, not concurred in by the Senate, to the bill consolidating the Railroads of the State from Beaufort to the Tennessee line. The amendment which was stricken out is as follows: "That if the North Carolina Railroad, through its Board of Directors or otherwise, shall resist any of the provisions of this act; or if any of its provisions shall be decided to be unconstitutional, then all powers, franchises, rights and privileges herein granted shall be void and of no effect."

Mr. Craig moved to reconsider the motion to recede from the amendment. After discussion, in which Messrs. Craig, Johnson, Luckey and Richardson participated, a motion to table the motion was made by Mr. Trivett, and was adopted after some further discussion.

The bill to incorporate the Oriental Fish and Oyster Company was taken up. Mr. Hanner moved to postpone until the 16th of January. Lost. The bill then passed its second reading by a vote of yeas 60, nays 24. Under a suspension of the rules, the bill passed its third reading.

The bill to defray certain clerical expenses in the office of the Secretary of State, was taken up. [The bill gives $50 per month for 12 months for clerk hire.]

After considerable discussion the bill passed its second reading by a vote of yeas 54, nays 32. Under a suspension of the rules the bill passed its third reading.

The bill to change the time of holding the Superior Courts in Randolph county, was taken up, and passed its several readings.

The bill requiring some owners to stake out the channel of the Chowan river, was taken up and passed its several readings.

The resolution in favor of P. McGowan, was taken up and passed its several readings.

The bill in reference to the meetings of the Directors and Stockholders of the Carolina Central Railway, was taken up and passed its several readings.

The bill to amend the charter of the Fair of the Carolinas, was taken up, amended, and passed its second reading. Under a suspension of the rules the bill came up on its third reading, and was, on motion of Mr. Brown, of Mecklenburg, postponed until to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

On motion of Mr. McGeehee the bill to make valid the statutes of limitation, left out of Battle's Revisal, was taken up and passed its several readings.

Adjourned.

H. W. Fries, of Salem, killed a calf five weeks three days, old which turned out one hundred and four pounds of real.

"ST NICHOLAS" AND OUR YOUNG FOLKS.

The publishers of ST. NICHOLAS, Scribner's Illustrated Magazine for Girls and Boys, take pleasure in announcing that by arrangement with Messrs. J. R. OSGOOD & CO., their popular Magazine

"OUR YOUNG FOLKS"

HAS BEEN MERGED INTO "ST. NICHOLAS."

In addition to the striking novelties and great literary and artistic attractions already offered by "ST. NICHOLAS," the best features of "Our Young Folks" will be retained. "ST. NICHOLAS" has been enlarged, new contributions have been secured; among them

A SERIAL STORY BY J. T. TROWBRIDGE,

Late Editor of "Our Young Folks," which begins in the present number. Other eminent writers well known to the readers of "Our Young Folks" have been engaged. We are thus enabled to present to the public a Magazine for Children and Youth, superior in every respect to any ever before published.

THREE SPLENDID SERIAL STORIES.

"WHAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN EXPECTED."

A Story for Boys, by FRANK R. STOCKTON.

Author of "Ting-a-Ling," "Roundabout Rambles," etc. Mr. Stockton is one of the best of our American writers. The scene of the story is laid in Virginia. The boy hero has started out, with a gun on his shoulder, and we may be sure there will be no end of fun and adventures.

"NIMPH'S TROUBLES."

A Story for Girls, by OLIVE THORNE (Mrs. Harriet M. Miller).

A great favorite with the children. It is a good, strong, wholesome story of girl life, and will be full of interest for both boys and girls.

"FAST FRIENDS."

By J. T. TROWBRIDGE.

One of the most popular writers for young folks in America. Readers of "Jack Hazard," "A Chance for Himself," and "Doing his Best," will understand what a capital treat is in store for them in Mr. Trowbridge's new story.

ALL THESE STORIES WILL BE SPLENDIDLY ILLUSTRATED.

"JIMMY JOHN STORIES."

By Mrs. ABBY MORTON DIAZ.

Author of "The William Henry Letters," "William Henry and His Friends," and "Lucy Maria" (who has the rare and happy gift of knowing how to delight young people) will appear during the year. There will also be Shorter Stories, Papers on Science and History, Natural History, Wild Sports and Adventures, Sketches of Travel, Fairy tales, Poems, Puzzles, Charades, Jingles, Fun and Fancy, Instruction, Entertainment and Delight. Something for all, from Father and Mother to Baby. The illustrations will be the best that the Artists of two continents can supply and will be printed with the greatest care.

FOR VERY LITTLE FOLKS.

Our pages in big type and easy words for the youngest readers, which have been "a hit" from the first, will be continued. The children will be glad to know also, that the department of

is to be a permanent feature of the magazine. Jack will tell some of the most curious things ever heard, and make himself generally entertaining.

We have undertaken to make the best magazine possible, for the little folks, as well as those who are older. Every number ST. NICHOLAS will contain good reading matter for boys and girls of all ages, besides a great deal of hearty and innocent fun.

Christmas comes but once a year, but ST. NICHOLAS, the new magazine for girls and boys, comes every month. It has already won the hearts of the young folks, and the little Children are crying for ST. NICHOLAS.

We Want 100,000 Children and Youth Made Happy

BY ST. NICHOLAS AT THE HOLIDAYS.

St. Nicholas, as enlarged, contains one-third more matter than Our Young Folks, thus giving a great variety for all. With its great Literary and Pictorial Attractions, and its beautiful Printing, it will be found to be the cheapest Magazine in the World.

Subscription price, $3 a year. The two back numbers for November and December, 73, will be sent to all subscribers for 74 without additional charge. Four months for ONE DOLLAR; 25 cents a Number. For sale and subscriptions received by all Booksellers & News dealers on the above terms.

Money may be sent to us in checks payable to our order, or in Postoffice Money Orders, or in Registered Letters, money in letters not registered, at sender's risk.

J. A. SPRINGER.

MR. JOHN D. CAMERON, Editor of the Hillsboro' Recorder, was in our office on Saturday. We regret exceedingly not being in, and missing his visit.

CHICKEN DISPUTE.—Much fun is anticipated on Christmas day at Wilmington Gardens, where there will be a chicken "dispute" and turkey shooting.

CLOTHING is down, money being scarce, we are offering our entire stock of clothing, boots and shoes at suspension prices.

S. HANSTEIN & Co's New York House, 15 Market st.

CRISOLINE ENCOUNTER.—Four or five sombre damsels of unenviable reputation, had a little set too this morning, on Third street in the vicinity of the Coffee House, about the affections of a recreant admirer. Nails were trumps, hair was at a discount, and each left the field of battle with a "barber pole" face.

EFFECTS of panic tremendous: Tumblers in prices at

S. HANSTEIN & Co's New York House, 15 Market st.

SEVERELY BURNED.—We learn that a little colored child was very severely burned in this city on Saturday, but the extent of its injuries we could not ascertain. The child, which is only about one year old, was left alone, and during the absence of the nurse it crawled so near the fire that its clothing caught fire, and when the nurse returned they had been consumed, and the child was lying on the floor writhing in agony.

OWING to the late panic we will sell until January 1st, our entire stock at 25 per cent. less than New York cost.

S. HANSTEIN & Co's New York House, 15 Market st.

CONFESSED.—A German named Alexander Raffalovich, who came here on a vessel from the old country about two weeks ago, was employed by Mr. G. A. A. Poppe, who keeps store on the corner of Fourth and Castle streets, as a clerk. Raffalovich, wanting to take a rise in the world, relieved Mr. Poppe of several boxes of Dooley's Yeast Powders, cigars and money. Raffalovich was accused of the theft of the articles, and, like a man, confessed his sin. A warrant was sued out before Squire Gardner this morning for his arrest. Raffalovich was lodged in jail to await an examination to-morrow at 2 o'clock.

COLLIDED.—On Saturday night as the street car was coming from the depot, and while in the act of passing the regular car on the switch on Red Cross, between Front and Second streets, they collided, and were thrown from the track. The windows in both cars were completely shattered, the falling glass cutting the driver and one or two of the passengers very severely. The horse attached to the small car broke through his harness and was last seen tearing up the street. It seems to be the impression of some of the passengers that the small car was not far enough on the turnout to allow the larger car to pass. As the latter was coming down the grade pretty rapidly it struck with force enough to throw some of the lady passengers from their seats.

The ladies of the Asheville Methodist Church will spread a Christmas dinner the proceeds go to the parsonage.

SELLING BY WEIGHT.—The subject of selling spirits turpentine by weight in future instead of measure, as formerly, has been agitated by our merchants for some time past, though, however, no definite conclusion has yet been decided upon. It is argued by some that a change would be more satisfactory, and that the numerous reclamations for short measure, which arises almost daily, would be alleviated, while others argue that it would only give rise to a greater number, and would not give general satisfaction, inasmuch as it would take more time and trouble to make it merchantable.

We learn from the New York Shipping and Commercial List that a meeting of the Naval Stores Committee was held on Tuesday last to consider the propriety of selling Spirits Turpentine hereafter by weight, instead of measure, as formerly, but no definite conclusion has yet been reached. It is generally thought that the change will be more satisfactory than the old method, from which numerous reclamations for short measure have arisen—7 lb. to the gallon is mentioned as the proper standard.

CAUGHT.—On Thursday last, the papers gave an account of one of the most daring robberies which has ever taken place in this city. The scene of the robbery was the dwelling of Mr. Thaddeus D. Love, and the stolen articles, a mattress, bedding, etc., were thrown from the window, one of the family arriving just in time to see the thief make his exit through the window and jump to the ground. Since that time, Mr. I. T. Alderman has been victimized in the same manner, and the bedding of an old decrepit colored woman, living on Mr. Love's lot, was also taken. The woman who was cooking for Mr. Love at the time of the robbery, was supposed to know something about the missing articles, and by hook or crook some one got a peep into her room, and there discovered the stolen goods of Messrs. Love and Alderman, and also the bedding of the old colored woman. The woman of course denies taking them, and asserts that a colored man answering to the name of "Wise William" put them there.

"Wise William" was probably the "gentleman" who did the high and lofty tumbling through the window of Mr. Love's residence; but there can be no possible doubt but that the woman is one of the man's confederates, and that there is a regular organized band of men, who work themselves into the good graces of the domestiques, and with their assistance gain admittance into halls, etc., and make off unmolested with whatever may happen to fall in their way.

Warrants were issued by Squire Van Amringe for the arrest of the woman, and the cases will have a hearing to-morrow morning.

Some of the jewels of "Fellowship Lodge, No. 84, of North Carolina," which were lost during the war, have been returned from Michigan.

The residence of Dr. J. W. Gray, of Craven County was destroyed by an incendiary fire on last Thursday. Loss about $5000, partially covered by insurance.

Saturday Night Sketches.

There is quite a change in the weather to-night, and overcoats are not burdens for the first time in several days. The day was so bright and sunny that many are out without extra clothing however, so that rapid locomotion is the prevailing fashion. So near to our blessed holiday are we, that the sidewalks are almost made impassable by the crowds gazing into the show windows of the various toy and other stores about the city, where displays are made for the attraction of custom. The hundreds of little hearts to-night dreaming of Santa Claus, and the sweet deception of innocence so common and so loving, comes up before us in many a form as we glance at the display of gifts so temptingly and lavishly exposed. Oh for a fortune to enact the beloved Saint one time.

The stores are crowded with purchasers selecting presents as well as necessities. Mysterious packages and parcels carefully tied, are carried out into the darkness, to lie concealed until the glorious Christmas is come. No one but a parent can appreciate the tender affection with which the hearts of the bearers of these packages are filled, and as they hasten homeward, all smiles, and with a quiet happiness so plainly visible, we feel like stopping them to give a hearty shake of the hand, and bid them God speed.

On the principal corners, the crowds are so large that policemen are compelled to keep a passage clear for the accommodation of passers by, which gives us quite the appearance of a city. And, indeed, so we are—as it were—though our legislators do not seem to comprehend it. If they could wander with us to-night, and see the throngs of sailors gazing at the sights and hear them conversing in their native tongues, many and curious, they would have different ideas while laboring over railroad bills and other abominations. The scores of large vessels, hardly discernable to-night, save by the topmasts against the starry sky, and the vast piles of freight upon the wharves all ready to be carried to foreign climes, point to our importance in the commercial world. So, though this portion of the city is silent to-night, we appreciate the benefits and rejoice that they are here.

The juveniles are laying in their supplies of crackers, torpedoes and fireworks, preparatory to the celebration of the birth of Christ! This is no new feature here, but would rather surprise their northern brethren who are only allowed to indulge in these luxuries on the 4th of July, and from now until Christmas, they will gaze upon their hoarded treasures, impatient of the delay and longing for the great day. We presume the hours will drag for them, though they will be short enough for those of us who have lost our love of fire crackers and noise are hastening on in life's journey.

The labors of the week are not over as early as usual, for customers are many and dealers are more cheerful; let us hope it is the commencement of good times. But all things earthly come to an end, and Saturday night with its hopes and fears, joys and sorrows, goes out never to return.
